

Sea fulling place names in Shetland

The Old Norse term toeva means to full cloth, and a koddi is a hollow or bowl. Pronunciations, and therefore spellings, vary around Shetland.

Toovacudda	Colvadale, Unst
Tuevacuddas	Houlnan Ness, Westing, Unst
Tuvvacuddies	Uyeasound, Unst
Wadmal Hole	Breckon, Yell
De Tovakoddis	Bay of Brough, Yell
Tufficuddi	Graveland, Yell
Tivacuddie	Westsandwick, Yell
Winjacuddie	Sound, Yell
Tevakodda	Nibon, Northmavine
Tavacuddie	Gunnister Voe, Northmavine
Tevakodda	Vidlin
Taava Cudda	Queyin Ness, Skerries
Tava Cuda	Kirk Ness, Whalsay
Duffacuddie	Eswick, Nesting
Kuddie	Gletness, Nesting
	Culswick, Sandsting
Taviecod	Whiteness
Taevracod	Burwick, Scalloway
Cudda	Bridgend, Burra
	Havera
Tevacudda	Easter Quarff
Tieffacudda	Ocraquoy, Fladdabister
Tivacudda	Aith, Cunningsburgh
Tieffacudda	Helliness, Cunningsburgh

Courtesy of Eileen Brooke-Freeman, the Shetland Place Names Project